

In Loving Memory

Dana Mallory

March 8, 1973 - September 4, 2017

Dana's life was truly focused on teaching her piano students and guiding the Youth Band at Christ The King Lutheran Church in Cary. It gave her great joy to interact with and mentor students. Through the years Dana was also a blessing to the Raleigh Piano Teachers Association and the North Carolina Music Teachers Association serving in officer and chairperson positions.

Margaret Clyburn

April 28, 1939 - December 26, 2016

Margaret H. Clyburn taught music education in both private and public schools in Raleigh and maintained a private piano studio with her husband of 51 years, James Clyburn. She combined her love of music and of church as choir director for St. Giles Presbyterian Church and Longview United Methodist Church, both in Raleigh. She and Jim shared a love of classical music, international travel, teaching and family life, and were both beloved in the Raleigh Piano Teachers Association.

Dolores Frazier

December 19, 1931 - December 20, 2016

Dolores influenced many students with her infectious love of music and her enthusiasm for life. She served as President of The Raleigh Piano Teachers Association, adjudicator for many auditions throughout the state and served on the RPTA board for many years having chaired special committees. She enjoyed entertaining and spending time with friends and family.
